

Section I: Introduction: The political origins of Sir Edward Mutesa's final exile.....	1
1 Who are the Baganda?	3
2 The struggle for the control of the Buganda sub-state: the emergence of the Mengo Establishment.....	13
3 The development of the roots of the exile of Sir Edward Mutesa II, 1945-1962.....	31
4 The struggle for the control of the post-colonial Ugandan state, 1963-1966.....	45
5 The fragility of the Obote regime, 1966-1971	55

Section II: The second and final exile of Sir Edward Mutesa II, 24 May 1966 - 21 November 1969	67
The story begins.....	69
6 Sir Edward Mutesa II flees to the United Kingdom, 1966	71
7 Sir Edward did not have money on arrival in the United Kingdom	81

Section III: Efforts to secure financial assistance for Sir Edward Mutesa II	95
8 The case for helping Sir Edward Mutesa II: The politicians and academics.....	97
9 The Bureaucratic Mind: The case against using public funds to support Sir Edward Mutesa	125
10 Other suggested options in the UK to help Sir Edward Mutesa II	141
11 The Ugandan option: Remitting money from Uganda	159
12 The Ugandan Government conditional offer to Sir Edward Mutesa	173

Section IV: The bitterness of exile	187
13 Tortures of exile: The psychological pains of exile	189
14 Tortures of exile: the physical components of the suffering	199
15 The arrest of Princess Victoria Nalinya Mpologoma	207
16 The tortures of exile: Short lived moments of pleasure	219
 Section V: The death of Sir Edward Mutesa II and the politics around his body	 227
17 Death of Sir Edward Mutesa	229
18 The cause of death of Sir Edward Mutesa II.....	235
19 Controversy over where Sir Edward Mutesa would be buried: U.K. or Uganda	247
20 Levels of representation of Her Majesty's Government at the funeral of Sir Edward Mutesa.....	259
21 A "Full Military" or a private funeral?	267
22 The day the first funeral took place: London and Uganda	277
23 The final burial at Kasubi Tombs: The end of Sir Edward Mutesa's exile	287
 Section VI: Postscript	 303
24 Which Way Buganda?	305